

ONLINE SAFETY SITES

NOTE: The websites below are listed in random order and are categorized by websites students can use to learn online safety, and websites teachers can reference to learn how to teach online safety. To keep this list current, add additional resources you learn about at the bottom of this sheet.

Websites for Students

- http://pbskids.org/webonauts/?utm_campaign=elearningindustry.com&utm_source=%2Fthe-5-best-internet-safety-resources-for-teachers&utm_medium=link
- https://sos.fbi.gov/?utm_campaign=elearningindustry.com&utm_source=%2Fthe-5-best-internet-safety-resources-for-teachers&utm_medium=link

Websites for Teachers

- <http://powerupwhatworks.org/technology/teaching-students-disabilities-about-online-safety>
- <https://staysafeonline.org/teach-online-safety/>
- https://www.commoncraft.com/videolist?utm_campaign=elearningindustry.com&utm_source=%2Fthe-5-best-internet-safety-resources-for-teachers&utm_medium=link
- https://www.common sense media.org/educators/erate-teachers?utm_campaign=elearningindustry.com&utm_source=%2Fthe-5-best-internet-safety-resources-for-teachers&utm_medium=link
- http://www.doe.virginia.gov/support/safety_crisis_management/internet_safety/guidelines_resources.pdf?utm_campaign=elearningindustry.com&utm_source=%2Fthe-5-best-internet-safety-resources-for-teachers&utm_medium=link
- <https://www.ncjrs.gov/internetsafety/>
- <http://www.wiredsafety.com>
- <https://disneyprivacycenter.com/internet-safety/>
- <http://www.net smartz.org/internetsafety>

Additional Websites

-
-
-
-